KRESSMANN-HALLE
AUSSTELLUNGSORT, OFFENBACH, 2016-2026

Kressmann-Halle (2016-2026) Offenbach

The Kressmann-Halle was an exhibition space that YRD.Works opened in Offenbach's harbour in summer 2016. For this, the artist collective had completely renovated a former assembly hall and, in several months of manual work, turned it into a professional exhibition hall of 160 square metres. Until 2026, YRD.Works showed contemporary art there at regular intervals. The hall was meant to serve a young art scene as a platform and at the same time to open up a dialogue with artists from beyond the region.
Artists who exhibited there include Okka-Esther Hungerbühler, Nasan Tur, Sonja Yakovleva, Marcel Walldorf, Dauphine Klein, Tom Król and Marco Poblete. Alongside the exhibitions, performances also took place. YRD.Works' own works were also created in the hall: Scale Scale Scale (2016) with the collective D665, the pizza delivery service Not Not Pizza (2018) with Eike König, and the 1st Offenbach Lake Festival (2017) in the outdoor area.
